PRE- FESTIVAL SEASON: 2012 LONDON PALESTINE FILM FESTIVAL 29 MARCH-12 APRIL

THUR 29TH MARCH, 8PM

HACKNEY PICTUREHOUSE

KAMAL ALIAFARI DOUBLE-BILL & SCREEN TALK PORT OF MEMORY + THE ROOF

The Season opens with a double-bill celebrating the extraordinary cinema of Kamal Aljafari. His genre-defying couplet, The Roof (2009) and Port of Memory (2009), fuse vérité, script, and found footage to conjure poetic visions of troubled hometown Jaffa. This is a rare chance to experience both daring works in the company of the director, who will speak with writer and curator Omar Kholeif, Director of Liverpool Arabic Film Festival and curator of FACT multi-arts venue.

THUR 5TH APRIL, 6:30PM

AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL UK,
HUMAN RIGHTS ACTION CENTRE

PALESTINIAN CITIZENS OF ISRAEL: CHALLENGES & PRIORITIES SCREEN TALK WITH ADALAH & AMNESTY INTERNATIONAL UK

Adalah: The Legal Centre for Arab Minority Rights is a leading body dedicated to the rights of Palestinian citizens in Israel. Working with award-winning filmmakers including Rachel Leah Jones, it has produced vital films on an increasingly precarious situation. Following a selection of recent shorts, Adalah advocate Suhad Bishara will discuss present challenges and priorities for Palestinian citizens with Amnesty International UK campaign manager Kristyan Benedict.

THUR 12TH APRIL, 8:30PM

CINE LUMIERE

UK PREMIERE & SCREEN TALK LAST DAYS IN JERUSALEM

Abu Wael's debut, Atash/Thirst (2004), won the International Critics Prize at Cannes and saw him named "the most exciting Arab filmmaker to have emerged in more than a decade" by Sight & Sound. The Pre-Festival Season closes with Abu Wael presenting the UK premiere of this much-anticipated follow-up – a taut emotional drama depicting one Jerusalem couple's wrenching final days as they prepare to tear themselves from home, from the familiar, and even from each other...
